VEGETABLE STOCKS OF MARKETS HERE REMAIN COMPLETE

Bear Meat Plentiful-Butter

Consignments of bear meat have been received at several markets, the huge size of some of the bears attracting much attention. Sea foods remain at the same level they have held for months, the chief varieties being frozen. "Green" fish sell at slightly higher prices than the frozen ones.

Butter sells at around 40 cents per pound retail, and the supply of it is more plentiful, further reductions being expected by dealers. Immense quantities of oleomargarine and other butter substitutes continue to be sold. Housewives are jubilant ever the sharp reductions in the price of eggs, and the reductions in the price will lift the "boycott" which has been declared against eggs in most homes since the recent high prices have been in effect.

Foods at Old Level.

Bespite the cold weather of the last few weeks, the supply of vegetables on the Washington markets remains complete, with prices but little higher than early in the season. Winter strawberlies are becoming more plentiful, and are beginning to sell at prices a little less than prohibitive. Winter spinach shows a slight advance in price, owing to the heavy freezes.

SECURITIES REACH A HIGHER LEVEL

Common Stock Goes to-72 1-2, and the Preferred Rests at 92 1-2.

Securities of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, especially the common stock, pursued their upward way again today, and were the features of the trading. Railway common went to 72%, and the preferred to 92 on call, and half a point higher after call. About In the trading after call the common stock declined slightly from the highest point on call, and evidences were not wanting that some of the stock could be had at the present high figures. Railway fours sold at 88½.

Some good trading in bonds preceded the operations in stocks, Potomac Consolidated fives being the favorites. Mergenthaler and Lenston were sold in genthaler and Lanston were sold in small quantity, and Washington Gas had a fairly active day with the price ranging between 84½ and 84%.

Allan G. Hoyt, of the H. W. Halsey Banking Company, of New York, ad-dressed the American Institute of Bankdressed the American Institute of Banking last night in Gude Hall, his subject being "The New York Stock Exchange." He described the workings of the exchange and its vast bearing upon the finances of the nation. Despite its evils, which Dr. Hoyt did not attempt to conceal or justify, he thought the excharge of great value to the nation. Mr. Hoyt has visited many foreign countries, and a portion of his address was taken up with a comparison of methods pursued by the bourses of the Old World with those in New York. The chief difference, in his mind, is the buying of stocks for future delivery in America.
